Safety and Testing: Bringing You Peace of Mind and Body.

We know that your clients, your career and your livelihood depend on the safety, reliability and quality of the products you use. Simply put, nobody else tests like OAKWORKS®, Inc. Every one of our new designs goes through a rigorous, specialized, four-part testing protocol including a dynamic load test, a lateral force test, a stability test and component and cycle tests. This equipment is engineered to exceed all the challenges your table might experience out in the real world, before it gets there. We test and design to eliminate risks, so that you don't have to worry about injury or expensive litigation.
